

BOISE STATE UNIVERSITY

NATIVE AMERICAN/MINORITY SCHOLARSHIPS

S107 - Bill R. McCracken Scholarship Fund

The Bill R. McCracken Scholarship Fund was established in 2004 by Bill R. McCracken, a graduate of Boise Junior College in 1969 and an Alumni Associate since 1982, for the purpose of establishing a scholarship to support a student in the College of Business and Economics with preference given to Native Americans and Minority students.

Criteria:

- Registered at Boise State University full-time (12 credits or more)
- Required Major: any major in the College of Business and Economics
- Minimum cumulative grade point average: 3.0
- Required: Financial need as defined by the Boise State University Financial Aid Office
- Preferred: Native American and Minority Students

BR144 - Flandro Family Scholarship

The donor, Debbie Flandro, believes in supporting the advancement of Boise State University and Native Americans including the Kalispel Tribe of which she is a proud member. At Boise State she has served on the COBE Advisory Council since 2004, including the role of president beginning in 2016. Debbie also serves as Chairman of the Gaming Board for Northern Quest Casino, owned and operated by the Kalispel Tribe of Indians in Spokane, Washington. Debbie became the third tribal member to graduate from College when she earned her accounting degree and later added an MBA, both from Boise State. Debbie went on to a successful career at Hewlett-Packard that spanned 27 years.

Criteria:

- Registered at Boise State University full-time (12 credits or more undergraduate; 9 credits graduate)
- Required Major: any major in the College of Business and Economics
- Minimum cumulative grade point average: 3.0 for undergraduate; 3.5 for graduate
- Required: Financial need as defined by the Boise State University Financial Aid Office
- Required: Member of a federally recognized Native American tribe

AS071 - Annice Hattoon Edmundson Scholarship

The Annice Hattoon Edmundson Scholarship was established in 1991, by Eldon and Phyllis Edmundson. The scholarship was established to help students at Boise State University who are working towards their Music degree. The Edmundson's know that juniors and seniors need to be encouraged financially in order for them to reach their potential; therefore they developed this scholarship with them in mind.

Criteria:

- Registered at Boise State University full-time (12 credits or more)
- Required major: Music Education
- Minimum cumulative grade point average: 3.0

- Junior or Senior status
- Required: Financial need as defined by the Boise State University Financial Aid Office
- Preferred: Minority Students

ER061 - Roy and Beverly Grice Education Scholarship

The Roy and Beverly Grice Education Scholarship was established in 2010 by Roy and Beverly Grice. Roy and Beverly Grice both attended Boise State University. Roy received a BA in 1972 as a History major and Beverly received a BA in 1972 as an Elementary Education major. In 1982 Beverly then received an MA in Literacy/Reading. Beverly taught in elementary education for many years until her retirement. It is for this reason that the Grice's decided to establish a scholarship for Education majors at Boise State. Roy and Beverly's goal is for the selected students to have little or no educational financial debt upon graduation.

Criteria:

- Registered at Boise State University full-time (12 credits or more undergraduate; 9 credits graduate)
- Required Major: Education
- Minimum cumulative grade point average: 3.0
- Required: Financial need as defined by the Boise State University Financial Aid Office
- Preferred: Minority Students

ES085 – John Jensen Minority/Migrant Education Scholarship

The John Jensen Minority/Migrant Education Scholarship was established in 1999 by the late John Jensen, a Boise State education professor. Jensen recognized the great need to increase the number of talented minority and migrant or seasonal farm worker youth in the teaching profession. He wanted to encourage these youth and their dependents to pursue careers in teacher education, therefore becoming mentors for other minority and migrant youth. Jensen was granted emeritus status upon his retirement in 2000, after teaching at Boise State for more than 30 years.

Criteria:

- Registered at Boise State University full-time (12 credits or more)
- Required Major: Education
- Minimum cumulative grade point average: 2.5
- Sophomore, Junior, Senior status
- Required: Student must be from minority group or have a migrant or seasonal worker background.
- Supplemental Requirement: Student must submit an additional essay on why he/she wants to be a teacher and what their contribution will be.
